1 Preamble

FMCAD Inc. is committed to making the proceedings of FMCAD 2018 as available as possible. To that end, FMCAD Inc. will make the proceedings available on the Web for free, once final versions of papers are available. In addition, FMCAD Inc. will endeavor to have the proceedings included in the ACM and IEEE digital libraries. In order to effectively distribute and protect the availability of proceedings, FMCAD Inc. requires all authors to sign this copyright transfer form. This form also gives Authors essentially unrestricted rights to distribute their Contributions, as outlined in the Author Rights section below.

2 Rights Granted

The Authors assign to FMCAD Inc. a non-exclusive copyright to the above contribution. The copyright transfer gives FMCAD Inc. the right to print, publish, and distribute the contribution throughout the world in all current and future languages, forms, and media of expression. FMCAD Inc. does not need permission of the authors to exercise its rights and can transfer rights, such as the right to publish electronic versions of the contribution, to other organizations, such as ACM and IEEE.

3 Author Rights

Authors retain the same rights as FMCAD Inc. They can distribute their contributions on their Websites or in any manner they see fit, as long as a full citation to FMCAD 2018 is given, and a link to the FMCAD 2018 website is provided. In addition, the Authors can create derivative works in connection with the Authors' scientific and academic activities. The Authors retain all proprietary rights in any process, procedure, or article of manufacture described in the Contribution.

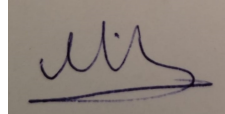

4 Author Responsibilities

The Authors warrant that their Contribution represents their original and unpublished research. Furthermore, to the extent the Contribution incorporates text passages, figures, data or other material from the works of others, the Authors have obtained any necessary permissions. The Authors warrant that the Contribution contains no libelous statements and does not infringe on any copyright, trademark, patent, statutory rights or proprietary rights of others, and that they will indemnify FMCAD Inc. against any cost, expenses or damages for which FMCAD Inc. may become liable as a result of any breach of this warranty.

5 Corresponding Author

One Author must act as the Corresponding Author. The Corresponding Author warrants that s/he has the power and authority to transfer the copyright on behalf of all Authors and their Employers. The Corresponding Author agrees to provide to the Editors or their representatives all requested material by the date specified by the Editors. This may include LaTeX files, PDF files, supporting materials, etc. The submitted material must be prepared in accordance with the instructions provided by the Editors or their representatives.
